Pacific Coast Council

Preliminary 2014 – 2015 Training Calendar

Initial Training to become "Volunteer Ready"

NEW Module 1 as of Sept 30, 2014! • Replaces Child & Youth Safety, Accessibility and the old Module 1. • If you completed all of each of the 3 former courses before Sept. 30, 2014, you do not need to do the new Module 1. • Completing Module 1 is required before doing Wood Badge training.	• Starting Sept. 30, 2014, all new volunteers must complete the new Module 1 online through the David Huestis Learning Centre as part of becoming "Active", even if some of the 3 former courses were finished before Sept. 30, 2014. In-Town: The course is held in Greater Vancouver and you sleep at home each night.

Distance Ed: These courses combine a 90 minute Introductory session followed by home study using a flash drive / memory stick with 20 Topic sessions and then a half-day wrap-up session.

Residential: Participants attend a Scouts Canada camping facility for the full weekend and get to enjoy training in a mixed indoor and outdoor setting. Child care may be offered.

e-Learning: Lets you take a partial or full Wood Badge I course at your own pace on your own computer. Go to myscouts.ca, log in, click on Training button on top bar, then on David Huestis Learning Centre (New e-Learning Platform). After you complete all 4 modules of a Wood Badge 1, your Area Commissioner will be notified within about 2weeks and will arrange for presentation to you of your training certificate and, for your first Wood Badge earned, a woven leather Wood Badge woggle.
